

Illinois Online End-of-Course Survey

Dear Illinois Online Student,

Thank you for participating in the Illinois Online course survey.

This research is being conducted by the Center for Innovation in Teaching and Learning (CITL) at the University of Illinois to assess the quality of our online courses. This survey should take less than five minutes to complete.

Your responses will be kept completely confidential unless you grant permission to quote the comments you provide. Only University personnel will have access to your individual responses -- all data will be reported only in aggregate.

This survey is completely voluntary and will have no impact on your course grade or your relationship with the University of Illinois.

Research questions? Please contact Maryalice Wu: malice@illinois.edu

Thank you again!

Dr. Maryalice Wu

If you feel you have not been treated according to the descriptions in this form, or if you have any questions about your rights as a research subject, including questions, concerns, complaints, or to offer input, you may call the Office for the Protection of Research Subject (OPRS) at 217-333-2670 or e-mail OPRS at irb@illinois.edu

Laws and University rules might require us to disclose information about you. For example, if required by laws or University Policy, information may be seen or copied to the following people or groups: a) The University committee and office that reviews and approves research studies, the Institutional Review Board (IRB) and Office for the Protection of Research Subjects, or b) University and state auditors, and departments of the University responsible for oversight of research.

Please print a copy of this consent form for your records, if you so desire.

I have read and understand the above consent form, and by clicking the consent button to enter the survey, I indicate my willingness to voluntarily take part in the study.
