

2010

ANNUAL FACULTY RETREAT

Crosscurrents
of creativity in teaching

FEBRUARY 5, 2010 • 8:00 AM–2:30 PM • ILLINI UNION

8:00–8:30 Registration and Coffee

8:30–8:40 Overview

Cheelan Bo-Linn, Center for Teaching Excellence

8:40–9:00 Welcome

Robert A. Easter, Chancellor and Provost (interim)

Introduction of 2009–2010 Distinguished Teacher-Scholar

Tim Stelzer, Physics

9:00–10:30 Keynote

Creativity in Teaching and Learning

Keith Sawyer, Professor, Psychology and Education, Washington University in St. Louis

10:30–10:45 Break

10:45–12:30 Collaborative Creativity Session

12:30–1:45 Lunch and Networking

Light sandwich buffet (12:30–1:00)

Lunchtime address (1:00–1:45)

Multimedia Pre-Lectures: Using Online Content to Increase In-Class Learning

Tim Stelzer, Physics, 2009–2010 Distinguished Teacher-Scholar

1:45–2:30 Dessert Plus

Poster Session

Book Signing

Illini Union Bookstore Display

Sweets and Coffee

2:30 Retreat Conclusion

Following the retreat, you're invited to a fireside chat with Keith Sawyer

“The most critical challenge facing educators in the 21st century is how to foster creativity in our students, while at the same time ensuring mastery of subject matter.”

–Keith Sawyer

 ILLINOIS

Sponsored by:

Office of the Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs
Center for Teaching Excellence
Office of Continuing Education