Creating Success When Teaching & Learning Remotely

“Good teaching does not spring naturally from a particular modality (e.g., on campus brick-and-mortar vs online). Good teaching in any learning environment requires careful attention to course design and facilitation.”
(Riggs, 2019, p. 4)

Come join a dynamic learning community by participating in this specially designed online workshop series for all faculty (across all disciplines and rank). We'll share strategies and best practices from research-based pedagogy. Great conversations and handouts provided.

Feb. 17 (Wed)	“I wish I had known that earlier” : Using Informal (IEF) and Formal (ICES) Online Feedback to Improve Teaching and Learning
